

Room 19: 8th Grade Homeroom/ Junior High History

We exist to offer a life-changing encounter with Jesus and transform the culture.

CLASS MISSION STATEMENT

We will strive to be the best versions of ourselves by showing love and respect for one another, by growing closer to God through scripture and prayer, and by challenging each other to reach our academic goals.

CURRICULUM OVERVIEW

7th grade will explore and learn about our nation's history from the beginnings, to Colonization and Settlement, through the Revolution and New Nation, Expansion and Reform up to the Civil War and Reconstruction. 8th grade will continue their historical exploration learning in more detail and continuing on through the Development of an Industrial, Urban, and Global United States as well as the Great Depression and World War II.

Learning is done through whole group and small group instruction, group projects, and partner work.
